

2017 Fair Queen Contestants

Individuals, businesses, and organizations are invited to sponsor contestants for the 2017 Harrison County Fair Queen Contest; the crowning is set for June 18th, after the parade. Preliminary judging will be held Saturday June 17th, at the Harrison County Fairground's Talmage Windell Memorial Agriculture Building. The evening gown and professional wear judging will be open to the public starting at 7:00 on the 17th. It is free to the public.

The contestants will be judged in three categories: interview, professional wear, and evening gown. Contest official's stress that this is not a beauty contest, yet it is a contest to find a good representative for the county through community activities.

The official entry form below should be completed, including the sponsor's name and sponsor fee of $40.00. Checks should be made out to the Harrison County Agricultural Society.

Contestants are required to be a resident of Harrison County for at least 90 days, 17 to 20 years of age by the 2018 Indiana State Fair, single with no previous marriage, active in at least one school or community organization, and they must not make their livelihood by professional modeling.
