When the Queen attends the Fair, she will be expected to carry herself in an adult-like manner at all times. She will also be expected to dress appropriately for all the events she attends.

It is the Queen's good fortune to attend the Indiana State Fair to compete in the contest there. Details for this will be given to the winner.

Thank you for entering! We hope everyone has a great experience!

Queen Contestant Information Sheet

1. You should arrive at Harrison County Extension Office in Corydon at 2:45 on Saturday, June 16th. The actual judging begins at 3:15 p.m. However, this will give you time to freshen up prior to the judging. We will also have time to answer any questions.
2. A female friend or mother may accompany you for support and to help you prepare for each event. However, she will not be allowed to see the interviews or be in the room for the competition.
3. Wear minimal jewelry, if any.
4. Your shoes should be 2” heels or sandals. A pump is preferred because they are more comfortable, easier to walk in, and will flatter your legs.
5. Practice smiling!! Think of something that delights you. A sincere, easy smile will be points in your favor.
6. The winning contestant must be prepared to attend the Fair every night throughout the week. Please remember to wear appropriate clothing and conduct yourselves in an adult-like manner. Also, do not walk around the fairgrounds alone at any time. When you go to your car, if you do not have someone with you, go to the fair secretary’s office and someone will walk you to your car.
7. It is the Queen’s responsibility to attend the Indiana State Fair in Indianapolis in January to compete in the pageant there. Members of the HCAS Queen Pageant Committee/Fair Board will be willing to assist you in preparations for this event. Details about the Indiana State Fair will be given to the Queen.
